To understand the 24-hour clock in timetables

Note for teacher: where a data projector and the Internet are not available, a copy of the screen could be printed off for students. Exercises are purposely based on one page of data.

- Go to <http://www.dublinairportauthority.com/> and pick an airport from Cork/Dublin/Shannon. Now click on the information for Arrivals. Examine the first five entries and fill in the following:

Coming from	Due arrival time	Actual arrival time	Difference	Early/On time/Late

- Convert the following departure times to the 12-hour clock:

00.15	<input type="text"/>	05.40	<input type="text"/>	07.55	<input type="text"/>
12.11	<input type="text"/>	15.23	<input type="text"/>	18.35	<input type="text"/>

- Go to <http://www.irishrail.ie/home>, click Printed Timetables and then click Dublin-Rosslare Europort-Dublin.

How many stations are there on this route?

Which train from Dublin would I need to get if the ferry leaves at 21.30?

Convert all the departure times from Greystones to the 12-hour clock.

Dep. time	24-hour	12-hour	Dep. time	24-hour	12-hour
1.			4.
2.			5.
3.			6.

- How long does the first train from Arklow to Rosslare Strand take?

How long does the last train from Arklow to Rosslare Strand take?

What is the difference between the two?

CONCLUSION: What I have done...
